About This Trip •

Escape begins with an overnight journey from Delhi to the scenic village of Kasol, nestled in the Parvati Valley. Covering a distance of 520 kilometres over 15 to 16 hours, the route winds through mountain roads and charming towns, offering serene views and a peaceful ride. Upon arrival, Kasol welcomes you with its laid-back vibe and crisp mountain air. You'll settle into your hotel before exploring the local gems, strolling through the serene Nature Park, relaxing by the Parvati River, and trekking through pine forests along the Chalal Trail to a nearby village. The following day unfolds with a spiritual and scenic retreat, including a visit to Manikaran Sahib Gurudwara, a revered site known for its natural hot springs, and the nearby Naina Bhagwati Temple. A peaceful walk across the Choj Bridge offers stunning views of the valley before you journey to Tosh, a quaint village nestled among snow-capped peaks, offering a glimpse of the Himalayas' raw beauty. Throughout the trip, you'll enjoy cosy accommodations and traditional meals, making your stay both comfortable and authentic. On the final day, after soaking in the morning mountain views and a leisurely breakfast, you'll check out and either unwind in Kasol a bit longer or prepare for your return journey to Delhi by evening. This short yet refreshing escape offers the perfect blend of nature and spirituality, ideal for anyone looking to disconnect and recharge amid the calm of the mountains.

Things to do in Kasol and Places to Visit in Kasol

1. Explore the Parvati River: The Parvati River flows gracefully through Kasol, providing a serene setting that is ideal for relaxation. Surrounded by dense pine forests and scenic mountain views, it's a perfect place to unwind. You can sit by the rocks, dip your feet in the cold, clear water, or simply enjoy the sound of the rushing river. A must-visit for nature lovers and peace seekers alike.

2. Chalal Trek: The Chalal Trek is a short and easy hike from Kasol that takes you through pine forests and along the banks of the Parvati River. This trail is ideal for beginners and those looking to enjoy nature with minimal effort. The walk is scenic and peaceful, offering glimpses of mountain views, chirping birds, and hidden cafés along the way. Chalal village itself is a small, quiet settlement with a laid-back vibe. You can relax with tea by the river or meet fellow travellers. It's an ideal half-day trip to enjoy a walk and soak in Kasol's natural beauty.

3. Visit Manikaran Sahib: Just a few kilometres from Kasol, Manikaran Sahib is a famous Sikh Gurudwara known for its spiritual significance and natural hot springs. It welcomes people from all faiths and offers free community meals (langar). The temple is nestled in a valley between high mountains, offering a peaceful and spiritual environment. These hot springs are thought to be both soothing and healing, and visitors can even see food being cooked in the geothermal waters. A visit to Manikaran blends culture, faith, and natural wonder, making it an enriching experience and a must-visit spot when exploring the Parvati Valley.

4. Trek to Tosh: Tosh is a charming mountain village located about an hour's drive and a short trek from Kasol. Known for its panoramic views of snow-capped peaks, it's a favourite destination for trekkers and nature lovers. The road to Tosh is scenic, and the village itself feels like a hidden gem, with wooden houses, apple orchards, and peaceful vibes. Once there, you can explore local cafés, enjoy the mountain air, or simply admire the untouched beauty of the Himalayas.

5. Kheerganga Trek: The Kheerganga Trek is one of the most popular trekking routes near Kasol, offering breathtaking views and a rewarding hot spring at the top. The trek takes about 5-6 hours each way and winds through dense forests, waterfalls, and remote villages. At the summit, you'll find a natural hot water pool surrounded by snow-capped peaks, a perfect way to relax after the climb. It's ideal for adventure lovers looking for a full-day or overnight trekking experience. Camping under the stars at Kheerganga is an unforgettable experience, and the trail offers a blend of natural beauty, physical challenge, and spiritual serenity.

6. Explore Local Cafés: Kasol boasts a distinctive café culture that reflects its laid-back, bohemian atmosphere. You'll find cosy spots serving everything from Israeli food to Himachali dishes, all with a backdrop of stunning mountain views. Popular cafés like Evergreen, Moon Dance, and Jim Morrison Café are renowned for their chilled atmosphere, live music, and vibrant crowds. Whether you're sipping herbal tea, enjoying a wood-fired pizza, or playing board games with fellow travellers, these cafés offer more than just food; they create experiences. Ideal for solo travellers or groups, café-hopping in Kasol is a fun way to meet people and embrace the town's creative spirit.

7. Shop at the Kasol Flea Market: The flea market in Kasol is small but filled with character. You'll find handcrafted jewellery, woollen clothing, psychedelic art, incense, local handicrafts, and quirky souvenirs that reflect the town's hippie vibe. Prices are usually negotiable, and browsing through the stalls can be a fun experience. Whether you're looking for a colourful poncho, handmade accessories, or spiritual keepsakes, there's something for every traveller. It's also a great way to support local artisans and take home a piece of your trip.
