Tour Basics •

Duration: 5 Days 4 Nights	Route: Delhi - Bir - Billing - Barot - Delhi

About This Trip •

Looking for a peaceful yet adventurous getaway from Delhi? A well-curated Barot Valley package with a stop at Bir Billing offers the perfect mix of untouched nature and high-flying thrills. Nestled in the lesser-known corners of Himachal Pradesh, Barot Valley is a serene retreat far from the crowds. Surrounded by lush deodar forests and carved by the gentle flow of the Uhl River, the valley offers a picture-perfect setting for travellers seeking solitude and natural beauty. The valley's charm lies in its simplicity. Visit the Barot Dam and Hydel Project, walk along the riverbanks, or explore nearby villages like Lohardi, where traditional Himachali culture still thrives. For those who enjoy the outdoors, the Nargu Wildlife Sanctuary is ideal for birdwatching and short treks. Adventure seekers can hike to Winch Camp, known for its panoramic views and quiet camping spots. From Barot, the journey continues to Bir Billing, famous for paragliding. Billing, the launch site, is perched high above the valley and offers a spectacular take-off point. Glide through the air and land in scenic Bir, where Tibetan monasteries, cafes, and mountain views await. Whether you're looking to relax by the river or soar above the Himalayas, this Barot Valley package delivers a balanced experience. With crisp mountain air, cosy stays, and moments of pure adrenaline, this trip is ideal for couples, solo travellers, or small groups. If you're tired of crowded hill stations and want something refreshing, this offbeat escape is just the adventure you need.
