About This Trip •

Embark on a mesmerising 6-day journey through the heart of Kashmir, a paradise nestled amidst snow-clad mountains, crystal-clear lakes, and lush green valleys. Your adventure begins in Srinagar, the city of lakes, where you'll be enchanted by the beauty of the Mughal Gardens, Shalimar Bagh, Nishat Bagh, and Chashme Shahi, each showcasing intricate Persian-style designs and vibrant floral terraces. A visit to Asia's largest Tulip Garden and the historic Pari Mahal offers a perfect introduction to Kashmir's royal charm.

From Srinagar, venture on an exciting day trip to Sonamarg, the "Meadow of Gold," where you can witness the majestic Thajiwas Glacier and the serene Krishnasar Lake, reflecting the grandeur of the surrounding peaks. The journey continues to Gulmarg, a haven for nature lovers and adventure seekers alike, where you can enjoy the world-famous Gondola ride for spectacular panoramic views and visit attractions like Drung Waterfall and Strawberry Valley.

Your next stop is Pahalgam, a tranquil town surrounded by pine forests and rolling meadows. Explore the breathtaking Aru Valley, the scenic Betaab Valley, and the serene Chandanwari, all known for their cinematic landscapes and adventure activities such as trekking and pony rides. As your trip comes full circle, return to Srinagar for a memorable Shikara ride on Dal Lake, offering glimpses of floating markets, traditional houseboats, and the stunning Zabarwan range at sunset. Don't miss visiting the sacred Shankaracharya Temple and the bustling Lal Chowk market to shop for local handicrafts, Pashmina shawls, and dry fruits.

This Kashmir tour offers the perfect balance of natural beauty, cultural exploration, and serene relaxation, whether it's the soothing charm of a houseboat stay or the thrill of discovering the valleys and glaciers. Every moment spent in this paradise will leave you with memories to cherish forever.
