Duration: 5 Days 4 Nights	Route: Delhi - Kasol - Kheerganga - Delhi

Delhi — 5D 4N

About This Trip •

Embark on an unforgettable Himalayan escape that begins with an evening departure from Delhi, en route to the peaceful village of Kasol in Himachal Pradesh. The journey spans approximately 520 km, taking about 12 to 13 hours, as you travel through scenic hill roads, forested stretches, and charming mountain towns. You'll gradually ascend from an altitude of 300 meters to about 1,580 meters, soaking in the changing landscapes along the way.

By morning, you'll find yourself in the heart of the Parvati Valley, surrounded by pine-covered slopes and the soothing sound of the river. After checking into your hotel and refreshing from the long journey, please make your way to Manikaran Sahib Gurudwara, a serene and sacred site renowned for its natural hot springs and spiritual energy, an ideal place to unwind and find your rhythm in the mountains.

The adventure continues as you head toward Barshaini, the base point for the renowned Kheerganga Trek. Guided by locals, you'll trek through fragrant pine forests, cascading waterfalls, and quiet trails that wind through the Himalayas. The route is both invigorating and soul-soothing, with breathtaking views and moments of pure tranquillity. By evening, you'll reach Kheerganga, where you'll camp under a blanket of stars, surrounded by the untouched beauty of nature.

After a peaceful night in the mountains and a hearty breakfast, you'll begin your descent back to Barshaini. From there, you'll return to Kasol, either to catch your Volvo bus or private cab back to Delhi, carrying with you the calm of the valleys, the thrill of the trek, and memories of a truly immersive Himalayan retreat.
