About This Trip •

The journey began with a long but scenic drive from Delhi, weaving through the ever-changing landscapes of Haryana and Himachal Pradesh. As the plains gave way to hills and the air grew cooler, the excitement of reaching the mountains took over. Manali, nestled in the heart of the Himalayas, welcomed with its crisp air and stunning views. After checking into a cosy hotel and refreshing from the journey, the exploration started with a stroll along Mall Road, followed by a wander through the charming lanes of Old Manali. The peaceful surroundings of Dhungri Van Vihar, the vibrant energy of the Clubhouse, and the sacred aura of the Hadimba Temple offered a perfect mix of nature, culture, and history.

The adventure picked up with a visit to the magnificent Solang Valley, where snow-capped peaks and thrill-filled activities like paragliding and ziplining created an unforgettable experience. A drive through the iconic Atal Tunnel added a touch of wonder, cutting through the mountains to reveal views straight out of a dream. From Manali, the journey continued through the lush greenery of the Kullu Valley toward the tranquil town of Kasol, often called “The Mini Israel of India.” With the sound of the Parvati River nearby and pine forests stretching far and wide, Kasol offered a perfect retreat for quiet moments, lazy café-hopping, and soaking in the region's spiritual calm.

The next chapter led to Manikaran, where natural hot springs and the spiritual buzz of the place offered a unique blend of relaxation and devotion. From there, the trail ascended to Tosh, a secluded village perched above the valley, accessible only by crossing a bridge and trekking for 20 minutes along scenic trails. The reward was a night wrapped in mountain silence, surrounded by pure wilderness. The final morning offered views of the majestic Parvati Valley and a chance to explore the hidden gems of Kutla, Kalga, and Pulga, charming villages untouched by the rush of the modern world. As the sun dipped behind the peaks, it was time to head back to Delhi, with a heart full of memories and a soul refreshed by the mountains' magic.
