About This Trip •

Embarking on a journey from the bustling capital of Delhi to the tranquil hills of Himachal Pradesh, this trip unfolds like a beautiful story. The long drive to Manali is a scenic prelude, with winding roads, green valleys, and mountain views setting the tone for the days ahead. On reaching Manali, the charm of the town instantly captures your senses. Nestled among deodar trees, the ancient Hadimba Temple, peaceful Van Vihar, and vibrant streets of Old Manali offer a perfect blend of culture and calm. As the sun dips, Mall Road comes alive, inviting you to explore its local delights. The adventure intensifies with a visit to Solang Valley, where the snow-kissed landscape becomes a playground for thrill-seekers. Paragliding, skiing, and ziplining turn the day into a memorable thrill ride. A visit to the Atal Tunnel and serene spots like Vashisht Temple and Jogini Waterfall adds layers of wonder to the journey. Leaving Manali behind, the road to Kasol meanders through the lush Kullu Valley. Optional adventures like river rafting offer bursts of adrenaline, while the sacred Manikaran Temple provides spiritual peace upon arrival. The calm of Kasol and the surrounding Parvati Valley wraps you in a sense of stillness and simplicity, making it a perfect place to pause. As the trip comes to an end, the return to Delhi is filled with reflections of snow-capped peaks, quiet rivers, and countless moments of awe, a soulful retreat into the heart of the Himalayas.
