About This Trip •

The Manali Shimla package offers an unforgettable journey through two of Himachal Pradesh’s most beautiful hill stations. Your adventure begins with an overnight drive from Delhi to Manali, where serene mountain views and cool Himalayan air will welcome you. In Manali, you'll explore Van Vihar, the Museum of Himachal Culture & Folk Art, and the historic Hadimba Temple, followed by a stroll along the vibrant Mall Road in Old Manali. The package also features an exciting trip to Solang Valley, where you can try adventure activities such as paragliding, skiing, zip-lining, and more (at your own cost). You’ll also visit the engineering marvel of the Atal Tunnel, and depending on the season, a trip to Rohtang Pass or Sissu adds a high-altitude adventure to your experience. From Manali, the journey continues to Shimla, where you’ll have time to explore the bustling local markets and soak in the colonial charm of the town. In Shimla, the highlights include visits to Jakhu Temple, The Ridge, Christ Church, Scandal Point, and Mall Road. A scenic day trip to Kufri brings more opportunities for fun and relaxation, with seasonal skiing, horse riding, and panoramic views. You'll also explore landmarks like the Indian Institute of Advanced Studies, Viceregal Lodge, and the Botanical Gardens before returning to Delhi. This Manali Shimla tour package blends adventure, culture, and relaxation into a seamless Himalayan getaway.
