Places to visit in Sissu

Sissu, nestled in the scenic Lahaul Valley, is a destination where nature, culture, and serenity come together. As part of the Manali Sissu package, here are the top places you won't want to miss:

Sissu Waterfall (Palden Lhamo Dhar)

One of Sissu's most iconic landmarks, this breathtaking, heart-shaped waterfall tumbles down rocky cliffs beside the Chandra River. You can reach it via a short 20–30 minute trek or enjoy an exciting zipline ride from the helipad area. The mist, greenery, and mountain air make this a refreshing escape.

Sissu Lake

Surrounded by towering peaks, Sissu Lake is a serene, turquoise gem, ideal for peaceful strolls, stunning sunset views, and summer boating. It’s a perfect picnic spot that offers postcard-worthy views throughout the day.

Ghepan Lake Trek

For the adventure-loving traveller, this moderately challenging trek leads to a high-altitude glacial lake at about 14,000 feet. Blanketed in wildflowers and untouched by the crowds, Ghepan Lake is not just scenic, but considered sacred and lucky by locals.

Gyephang Temple (Raja Ghepan Temple)

Dedicated to the guardian deity of Lahaul, this revered temple holds deep spiritual significance. While visitors usually worship from outside the sanctum, the surrounding tranquillity and cultural vibe offer a humbling experience.

Monasteries of Lahaul

Close to Sissu, you’ll find a collection of peaceful Buddhist monasteries like Kardang, Shashur, Labrang, Tayul, and Guru Ghantal. These hilltop gompas offer stunning views, spiritual quiet, and rich glimpses into Himalayan Buddhist life.

Gondhla Fort

Located about 18 km from Sissu, this centuries-old fort, built of wood and stone, overlooks the Chandra River. It provides a peaceful, offbeat excursion and insights into Lahaul's royal heritage.

Keylong & Local Markets

Just 30 km away, Keylong is the cultural and commercial heart of the region. Visit the vibrant weekly markets to shop for woollens and handicrafts, or taste local specialities like siddu and dham. It also serves as a hub for accessing nearby monasteries and valleys.

Adventure & Experiences in Sissu

Camping & Stargazing: Camp near Sissu Lake or the waterfall and enjoy clear, star-filled skies. The Milky Way is often visible on cloudless nights.
