About This Trip •

Embark on a captivating journey through Kerala, a land where vibrant culture blends effortlessly with stunning natural beauty. This Munnar Alleppey Tour takes you through the historical streets of Cochin, the mist-clad hills of Munnar, and the serene backwaters of Alleppey, offering a perfectly balanced experience of culture, nature, and relaxation.

Your adventure begins in Cochin, a historic port city once frequented by merchants from Europe, China, and the Middle East. Celebrated as the Queen of the Arabian Sea, Cochin enchants with its blend of colonial-era charm, vibrant culture, and a storied maritime past. Explore iconic landmarks such as the Dutch Palace, known for its rich collection of murals and artefacts. Stroll along the quaint lanes of Jewish Street, where antique shops and spice markets offer glimpses into the past. Visit the centuries-old Jewish Synagogue, admire the colonial architecture of St. Francis Church, and watch the graceful operation of Chinese fishing nets. This age-old fishing technique has become a symbol of Cochin’s heritage.

From Cochin, your Munnar Alleppey Tour winds into the highlands as you head toward Munnar. The drive itself is a treat, offering scenic views of lush tea plantations, misty valleys, and cascading waterfalls. Nestled at an elevation of around 1,600 meters above sea level, Munnar captivates visitors with its colonial charm and enduring natural beauty. Once a summer retreat for British officials, it is now a peaceful haven for nature lovers. Visit the Tea Museum to gain insight into the region’s tea legacy and enjoy the tranquil beauty of the Rose Garden, home to vibrant blooms and rare herbs.

Munnar continues to impress with its local attractions. Witness the calm beauty of Mattupetty Dam and take in the serene waters of Kundale Lake. Echo Point offers a fun acoustic surprise while surrounded by pristine landscapes. Nature enthusiasts will appreciate a visit to Eravikulam National Park, renowned for being the habitat of the endangered Nilgiri Tahr and a rich variety of flora and fauna. The park's vast meadows and cool mountain air make it a refreshing escape into the wild — one of the most memorable highlights of your Munnar Alleppey tour.

Leaving behind the hills, the Munnar Alleppey Tour takes you to Alleppey, a destination renowned for its backwaters and unique houseboat experiences. Known as the Venice of the East, Alleppey presents a slower pace of life, where you can cruise through palm-lined canals, observe local villages, and experience the essence of Kerala’s rural charm. Aboard a traditional houseboat, you’ll glide past lush paddy fields, swaying coconut palms, and age-old temples, witnessing scenes of everyday life that seem untouched by time. The stillness of the waters and the warmth of local hospitality make this a deeply calming experience.

This Munnar Alleppey Tour is a thoughtfully curated journey that brings together Kerala’s diverse offerings. Whether you are walking down a spice-scented lane in Cochin, sipping fresh tea amid the hills of Munnar, or cruising through the tranquil backwaters of Alleppey, every moment is crafted to leave a lasting impression. Perfect for families, couples, and explorers alike, this Munnar Alleppey Tour combines cultural richness, modern comforts, and breathtaking scenery in a perfectly balanced itinerary.
