About This Trip •

Your Shimla tour begins under the soft glow of Delhi's city lights, as you board a late-night Volvo or cab, leaving the hustle behind for the calm of the hills. As you doze off, the roads wind quietly through Chandigarh and Solan, guiding you toward the pine-scented heights of Shimla. By early morning, the cool mountain air greets you as you arrive in this charming hill station. After a warm welcome and some rest, you set out to explore Shimla's colonial heart. You walk up to the ancient Jakhu Temple, with monkeys trailing behind and panoramic views all around. Mall Road comes alive with its shops and cafes, leading you to the iconic Ridge and the majestic Christ Church, where time seems to pause. At Scandal Point, the stories of yesteryears whisper through the air. The next day, a short drive takes you to Kufri, a peaceful town wrapped in forested trails. In winter, the slopes are alive with skiing; in summer, horseback rides lead you through cedar paths. By evening, you stroll through the Viceregal Lodge and the tranquil Botanical Gardens, soaking in Shimla's quiet elegance. Your final morning is slow and soulful.
